(b) whether it is afact that guards of Shahdol were punished for not taking/keeping clamps as an equip ment when they were not given clamps at any stage and that there no chains, lock and key; and

(c) if so, the reasons for awarding such punishment ?

THE MINISTER OF RAILWAYS (SHRI C. K. JAFFER SHARIEF): (a) 45 guards of Shahdol of Bilas-pur Division had accepted the supplies of clamps including chain, lock and key till March, 1993 as a safety equipment to be used on goods trains.

(b)) and (c) At no stage was there any shortage of the safety equipment of clamps for supply to the guards of Shahdol. A number of guards refused to accept the supplies. 7 guards were taken up under Disciplinary and Appeal Rules for not fixing Last Vehicle Indicator on the goods trains, which ensures safety in train operations.
